The authority you have given us will remain in effect until we have received written notification from you (with at least 30 days notice) of the termination of this authority. You have the right to stop payment of any withdrawal by notifying the depository before it has charged your account. After your account has been charged, you may have the amount of any withdrawal made in error immediately corrected by the depository up to 30 days following notification or 45 days after posting, whichever occurs first.

Effective _____ the undersigned cancels this Automatic Transfer Authorization.
